(Lost White Heavyweight Championship)

*McCarty died 8 minutes after an apparently light blow had been delivered in a clinch. The coroner's jury decided that no blow had been responsible for McCarty's collapse, but that death was due to hemorrhage of brain, probably caused by a previous injury.

(McCarty claimed the heavyweight title during Jack Johnson's troubles with the U. S. Government and was admitted to be the best of all white hopes. There is little doubt that had McCarty lived he would have won the title.)

JOE GRIM

(Saverio Giannone)

Born, Mar. 14, 1881, Monetello, Avellino, Italy. Weight, 130-165 lbs. Managed by Lew Bailey. Grim had one of the most remarkable records compiled by any fighter. He competed in more than 300 contests, from four to twenty rounds from 1902 to 1913 and during this time he was knocked out only three times though the greatest fighters of the day tried to accomplish this feat. He was floored more often than any other fighter, but because of his durability he always came up again fighting and asking for more punishment—truly an "Iron Man." He never kept a record, hence the impossibility to obtain all his bouts. Those listed here are the most complete ever compiled. They are taken from press clippings and from records of men whom he fought.

*In the original official decision of the referee and judges, Giardello was awarded the verdict as follows: Judge Shortell, 7 rounds to 3 and 10 points to 4 for Graham; Judge Agnello, 6 rounds to 4 and 7 points to 4 for Giardello: Referee Miller, 5 rounds to 4 for Giardello and five points to each.

Commissioners Christenberry and Powell, after the decision was rendered, changed Joe Agnello's score card which resulted in awarding the verdict to Graham. On Agnello's score card, one extra point was awarded by the Commissioners to Graham in round four and the tenth round was taken from Giardello and given to Graham who also received two points in that round. Thus the score was changed to give Graham the official split decision on the basis of the revision of Agnello's card by the Commission to read, five rounds each with Graham ahead in points, 6 to 5, thereby reversing the original majority decision of the judges and referee.

When the case came before the State Supreme Court, Justice Botein ruled that the New York State Athletic Commission had no right to reverse the scorecard of the official and decided the actual decision to be the one originally given in favor of Giardello.

TOMMY MILLIGAN, BOXING CHAMPION

Briton, Who Held European and Empire Title, Dies

Tommy Milligan, a former British Empire and European boxing champion, died Monday in Glasgow, Scotland, of a heart attack. He was 65 years old.

Milligan was best remembered for his world-title middleweight bout with Mickey Walker of the United States on June 30, 1927, in London. The bloody battle, in which Milligan suffered six knockdowns and was knocked out in the 10th round, stirred a storm of public debate in Britain over the value of boxing.

Sir Hall Caine, an English novelist, denounced the spectacle as "a debauch of brutality." In the letter that touched off the debate, he wrote: "In the sacred name of humanity, these orgies of savage, corrupt and degrading inhumanity . . . these gross exhibitions of merciless savagery and loathsome trafficking in human suffering must once and for all come to an end in England."

Defenders of the bout and of boxing in general included Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, the creator of Sherlock Holmes. "I think every public display of courage is a good thing," he said. "In this world, we have to keep up our nerve and courage, and boxing and playing manly games are ways wherein we can do it."

Milligan, a man of cultivated tastes who collected paintings, attacked Sir Hall Caine's suggestion that both fighters were illiterate.

The Scottish boxer, born in Glasgow, held the European and British Empire welterweight (147-pound limit) and middleweight (160-pound) titles. He fought in the United States during 1925 and 1926.

He is survived by his widow, two children, two brothers and three sisters in Scotland, and by two sisters in New York.
